*Friends,
Each year about this time, I do a fundraiser through my Mary Kay business for a cause. I match all contributions with my commission so I am not profiting from someone else's misfortune. This year I have selected cancer care kits for cancer victims. All kits will be donated to nonprofit agencies for distribution. Almost everyone has been touched by cancer or knows someone who has been. I am honoring our friend, Jim May and the memory of my sister, Sally Everhart...both victims of cancer. Please help me by sharing this information with your friends, businesses, and community groups who might support this effort. No donation is too small or too large. If you need a donation form, let the office know. Thank you for your consideration and support. If you are not in a position to offer help, please pray that we can achieve this goal to help others. Thanks! May you celebrate a Blessed Easter.*

Native American Ministries Sunday

Provides Scholarships

Prentis Harris III graduated from Duke Divinity School in 2013 and is currently serving at Sandy Plains UMC. While at Duke Divinity, he was honored to receive the Native American Seminary Award.

Below is an excerpt from an article where he relates about his experience and how important the Native American Ministry Offering has been to him.

“My three years at Duke Divinity was filled with humility and grace. First, I was humbled by the approval and support of all Duke Divinity School’s faculty and staff. Secondly, I felt God’s grace as I grew in the grace and knowledge of my Lord Jesus Christ. In addition, I furthered my knowledge of Methodism.

Through the support of the Native American Ministries Sunday, I was given this opportunity to grow in Christ. My experience at Duke Divinity School was challenging, but with support of my family, my local church and community, and the United Methodist Church, I was empowered to overcome.

And so, I am thankful of the support given to me during my years of study. Because of this support, I have dedicated myself to fulfilling God’s call upon my life by serving as a United Methodist clergy person.”

Thank you for your support. “Together, we empower local spiritual development and educate Native American seminary students to serve God faithfully.”
