Thank you so much for remembering me at Christmas with a gift card. Your thoughtfulness was greatly appreciated.

We have about 4 -5 people who volunteer to go to Mission Central once a month to pack kits that are sent to Texas and other disaster areas. We are in need of more volunteers. Can you give time for one morning a month to help? We meet at Weis Markets on Carlisle Road at 8 am. There is a sign-up sheet at the information center. For more information, see Dave Green. We'd really hate to see this come to an end.

Human Relations Day Offering: January 21, 2018

This offering supports the United Methodist Community Developers Program, United Methodist Voluntary Service and Youth Offender Rehabilitation programs. Below are 2 examples of how the offering has been used to make a difference for members of God's family.

The home of Emma Wooten, 85 was in dire need of repair. It was impossible for her to accomplish the repairs alone. She had tried to insulate her water damaged home with cereal boxes. The ceilings buckled under a leaky roof and the wiring was unsafe.

Thanks to a United Methodist Partners in mission (PMI) team, Emma's prayers for help to repair her house were answered.

The PMI program focuses on urgent home repairs, an after-school program for at-risk children and youth, and a resource referral center for families in the area. A community garden provides fresh, healthy food for people of all ages.

When "Donna" an active participant in her local UM Church in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, became pregnant as a teen, she found herself enfolded in a Blanket of Love, a Christ-centered ministry working to improve birth outcomes of African-American babies by teaching prenatal care, infant care and parenting skills to young pregnant African-American women and their families. Director, Julia Means, says, "The first thing I teach them is - as a mother - you must teach them to pray. Children need to be brought up in the church."

Your gift on Human Relations Sunday, January 21, strengthens community outreach and empowers at-risk youth making a positive difference in lives and communities.

Use the offering envelope provided in your envelope pack.
