From the Pastor ...

Mark 1:14-20 (NRSV)

Jesus Calls the First Disciples

¹⁶As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. ¹⁷And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fish for people.” ¹⁸And immediately they left their nets and followed him. ¹⁹As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. ²⁰Immediately he called them; and they left

Have you answered the call to follow Jesus? Today is a great day to give your life to God through faith in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. Simply pray: “Lord I repent of my sins. Forgive me and come into my heart and my life. I want to live for you. Thank you. Amen.”

Welcome to the family.

Now for you and the rest of us we know that once this commitment is made we are called to live for God. We are called to be good stewards of how we spend our time, our talents, and our treasures. This is our journey of making a difference—together.

This month we will celebrate with the world-wide church God’s sacrifice of Jesus Christ, His Son. We will journey through a conversation about stewardship and prepare to make commitments of giving for 2018. We will continue to serve and impact our community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Stay involved.

With you on the journey,

Pastor Mike

BIBLE GIVE-A-WAY

Supported by Giant and Weis Grocery Card Sales

We have given out hundreds of free Bibles at special events like National Night Out and the Halloween Parade, as well as to individuals seeking spiritual guidance.

This program is funded through our commission received on the sale of Giant and Weis grocery cards.

Here is an opportunity to be good stewards of our resources at no expense to you. Everyone shops for groceries and many of us shop at Weis or Giant. You can purchase grocery cards in denominations of $10 to $100 and use them to do your weekly shopping.

For the next several weeks, Karen Hoover or Dick Hamilton will be stationed at the rear of the Apostles Room to sell grocery cards between Sunday School and the 10:30 services.

World Communion Sunday Offering

This United Methodist offering provides scholarships for U.S. racial and ethnic-minority students and international students, on both undergraduate and graduate levels. Kennedy Bowie is an example of how one college student is being helped to reach her dream through this offering.

Kennedy faced many struggles and setbacks growing up, but that hasn't stopped her from pursuing her dream of becoming a surgeon.

The college student lost her father when she was 8 yrs old. She said her mother, as a single parent did her best to provide for her and her two siblings. Despite financial hardships, she remembers a house filled with laughter and love.

Even though her childhood was basically happy she relates, "Sometimes, the refrigerator and the kitchen cupboards were empty for long periods of time, and we had to depend on other family members for food. My mom did lose her job for a couple of years and we had to move out of our house. That was a big challenge in my life because I had to adjust to a new lifestyle."

Bowie said her close-knit family gave her the support she needed to stay strong and continue on the right path. She also credits her home church, Locus UMC in Columbia, MD, with helping her family through hard times and inspiring her to reach for her dreams. She said the church provided her with a "warm and loving second family. The UMC has greatly influenced me to keep hold of my morals as I grow and mature, and to keep faith and trust in God."

Bowie is currently studying biology at Hampton University in Hampton, VA. She received a World Communion Sunday scholarship, which she said allowed her to attend the prestigious university and gain new life experiences. She urges the church to promote religious unity and to help students reach their dreams and continue on their faith journeys.

This scholarship recipient is on her way to becoming a surgeon with the benefit of the World Communion Offering. Your gift to this offering will help other young people receive a quality education.

Christians Are Like Pumpkins

God picks you from the patch, brings you in, and washes all of the dirt off, some of which you may have gotten from other pumpkins. Then, He cuts the top off and scoops out all of the yucky stuff. He removes seeds of doubt, hate, greed, unforgiveness, etc. Then, He carves a new smiling face and puts His light inside of you to shine for all the world to see.

Are you letting your light shine?
